TRLS: The Essentials of Residential Leasing

3 hrs. CE, course #30980

$35

The state of the economy has led many real estate licensees to turn to property management. If you're among that group, it's important you become knowledgeable about the laws and duties imposed on property managers and leasing agents. This course will analyze and interpret factors impacting local rents, define owner objectives, and discuss development of effective owner communications. The course will also cover how to properly complete and present the TAR Residential Lease application.
